

Tune-In To The Trees

Loosened Leaves Borrow the Breeze
Singing Supple Songs
Of Local Liberation
To the Triumphant Tune
Of
“A Leave Leaning Life.”

While,
Lithe Limbs of Larches
Dance a Double Dervish
Forever Festooning Their Fertile Floor
To the Tabloid Tune
Of
“A Lustful Limber Life.”

While,
Tremendous Trunks Tighten Their Toehold
Celebrating Their Circle Centered Climb
Into Sky-Lighted Superstardom
To the Heavy Heralding Harp-strings
Of
“A Lumber Limited Life.”

While,
Roots Roam the Ripening Loam
Fostering Fungi Filaments
Encouraging Evermore Easy Enrichments
To the Double Down Drumming
Of
“A Litter Lavish Life.”

Together,
“Leaves, Limbs, Lumber, Litter”
Earns a Growing Group Grammy.

Thomas A. Burns
2024